

Preannouncement
Advanced Education Program for Judo Coaches with Frank Wieneke
December 4th – 5th 2010, Salzburg / Austria

During his active career Frank Wieneke was one of the most outstanding Judoka on the mat. He achieved an Olympic final twice. In 1984 he won the gold medal in the Los Angeles Olympics, 4 years later he only lost against Waldemar Legien from Poland and won Silver.

As coach Frank Wieneke was just as successful. During his period as national team coach for Germany's men's team from 2001 till 2008 he among others led Ole Bischof to the Olympic gold medal (Beijing 2008) and Florian Wanner to the world title (Osaka 2003).

Frank Wieneke teaches at the Trainerakademie des Deutschen Olympischen Sportbundes (federal academy for high performance coach education) in Cologne.

For our advanced education program for Judo coaches in Salzburg we are very proud to present Frank Wieneke as truly one of the highest respected experts in Judo. He got to know our sport in all different ways possible – as an athlete, as a coach and in coach education on the highest level.

Program details will be published in September.
